

10 things you should know about the Tec

Now that you are starting or continuing your path as a Tecnológico de Monterrey student, we know that you want to find out all there is to know about the Tec.

CONECTA (the Tec's news service), presents these 10 things about your new place of study.

1.- In the Top 5 in Latin America and in Top 200 in the world.

You're not reading it wrong. Tec de Monterrey is one of the best 200 universities in the world. In fact, it occupies 178th place in the world and 5th place in Latin America, according to the most prestigious rankings.

9.- A place of art and culture.

Art and culture are fundamental to the Tec. Although we don't offer a formal degree in areas such as dramatic arts or music, our programs are of the highest quality and we've had many successful graduates in this field.

We also have great cultural jewels, such as our own art museum, as well as organizing the Monterrey Book Fair.

Arte en el Tec

10.- From senior high school to a doctorate.

If you come from a PrepaTec, you already know this, but if you didn't, you should know that the Tec also has 37 PrepaTec campuses throughout the country.

What's more, when you finish your degree, you have dozens of options to study a master's and a doctorate, including online alternatives.
